

RECENT ARTICLES:

Morning Headlines 10/9/13

🕒 October 8, 2013 ≡ Headlines 👤 No Comments

Software, Design Defects Cripple Health-Care Website

The federal government has acknowledged for the first time since the October 1 launch of the federal insurance marketplace healthcare.gov that coding and architecture issues are causing the site's poor performance. Until Sunday, the administration was maintaining that the site was technically sound, but could not keep up with traffic demands.

Nuance Adds Two Icahn Associates to Board

After months of pressure from activist investor Carl Icahn, Nuance names two Icahn delegates to its board: Brett Icahn, Carl Icahn's son, and David Schechter, a longtime business partner.

PatientKeeper CPOE Rated the Easiest-to-Use CPOE Solution by KLAS Research

KLAS gives PatientKeeper's CPOE system an ease-of-use score of 8.3 (out of 9), placing it almost a full point above Epic's second-place score of 7.4.

Announcements and Implementations

A KLAS report finds that PatientKeeper is the most user-friendly standalone CPOE system on the market, with its 8.3 score on a nine-point scale beating Epic inpatient by almost a full point. All PatientKeeper customers interviewed by KLAS said they would buy it again, with an overall company performance score of 86.4 and reported physician user training time of as little as 10 minutes.